

Enrolled Agent Renewal Fee Increases

IRS charges user fees for many services it provides. One of these services is the granting and the maintenance of the Enrolled Agent credential. The EA renewal period is every three years based on the last digit of the EA's Social Security Number. IRS charges a fee to process these renewals.

The user fee for renewing the Enrolled Agent status will be $67 effective June 12, 2019. This increase matches the proposed increase announced last November.
